BRIDGEPORT SCHOOL BILL DEBATE

In the House—The Committee Report on Same Non-Concurred In—New Bills Reported in the Two Branches. Mr. Atkins Elected Senator—Mr. Atkins Bolts the Democratic Caucus Nominee and Compliments Hon. E. W. Wilson.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 22.—In the house of delegates this morning Mr. Mooman asked to be excused from service on the committee on railroads and Mr. Boggs from service on the committee on education. Both were excused and Mr. Mooman was appointed on the committee on education and Mr. Boggs on the committee on railroads.

The judiciary committee reported favorably on house bills 56, relating to mechanics' liens; 53, regulating the husband's liability for the wife's tort; 98, amending the act establishing a fish commission; 104, regulating the amount and collection of fees of expert witnesses; 106, to amend section 20, chapter 10, of the code of 1891; 109, amending section 89, chapter 29, of the code; 112, amending section 14, chapter 149, of the code; 116, to reform and modify the county court of Barbour county; 135, authorizing a laborer's lien on forest products; 173, including Elk City and other territory in the corporate limits of Charleston; and 175, originating in committee, amending section 68, chapter 50, of the code.

The committee reported adversely on 87, relating to justices of the peace; 102, relating to life insurance companies; and 107, empowering county courts to call special elections to issue bonds.

The committee on taxation and finance reported favorably on house bill 118, repealing certain miscellaneous appropriations made March 14, 1891, and adversely on house bill 52, amending section 51, chapter 32, of the code; and 63, amending section 51, chapter 32, of the code.

The committee on education reported favorably on house bill 143, amending section 51, chapter 32, of the code; and 151, relating to the duties of county superintendents.

The committee on privileges and elections reported as to mileage due Mr. Ford, of Raleigh, and corrections of former report as to other members.

BILLS INTRODUCED IN THE HOUSE.

New bills introduced: 175, by Ford, concerning justices; 176, by Ford, concerning notaries public; 177, by Jones, relating to millers' tolls; 178, by Mooman, repealing the transportation clause of the deer laws; 179, by McNabb, amending section 43, chapter 32, of the code; 180, by Kimes, relating to millers' tolls; 181, by Evans, by request, regulating the practice of dentistry.

Senate bill 8, describing lawful fences, was read a second time and ordered to a third reading; also senate bill 1, providing for the election of a special judge in criminal courts.

House bill No. 64, to establish the school district of Bridgeport, was again the subject of discussion, being vigorously opposed on general principles by Messrs. Pyle, Davis, Kimes and others, and just as vigorously advocated by Messrs. Harmer and Hess, of Harrison, assisted by several other members, among them Messrs. Clark, of Upshur, and Smith, of Ohio. The bill had been reported adversely by the committee, but the house refused to reject it by a vote of 36 to 29.

SENATORIAL BALLOT.

At noon, the vote on United States senator being in order, Mr. Campbell nominated Hon. S. B. Elkins, the nomination being seconded by Messrs. Reynolds, Evans and Fleming. Mr. Kidd nominated Hon. Johnson Camden in a brief speech. The vote resulted: Elkins, 48; Camden, 17. Mr. Atkins voted for Hon. E. W. Wilson; Mr. Porter voted for Wirt R. Neal, Populist.

At the afternoon session, four days' leave of absence was granted Messrs. Smith and Stamm, of Ohio county, to go home and vote.

House bill 7, fixing penalties for the obstruction of roads, was passed. House bill 13, relating to regents of state university, etc., was amended and ordered to a third reading. Senate bill 59, establishing the county of Mingo, was ordered to a second reading. House bill 175, consolidating Charleston, Elk City and suburbs, was ordered to a second reading. House bill 16, providing for free schools for Moundsville, ordered to third reading; also 17, relating to actions and suits at law. House bill 3, authorizing the school district of Spencer to issue bonds, was ordered to a second reading. House bill 71, to protect secret societies against persons claiming to be members, ordered to third reading. House bill 32, repealing the act establishing the criminal court of Wayne county, was advanced to a second reading, pending which the house adjourned.

IN THE SENATE.

Party Vote on United States Senator. Routine Proceedings.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 22.—In the senate the judiciary committee reported favorably on senate bill 29, relating to the collection of delinquent taxes; 12, concerning the jurisdiction and powers of county courts.

Mr. Lockney offered senate joint resolution 8, demanding a reduction in the price of school books. It was referred to the committee on education. New bills introduced: 80, by Cook, regulating the sale of liquors by druggists; 81, by Hyde, concerning justices and constables.

Bills passed: 16, relating to the fees of

CURE'S OTHERS

BAD CURE, SPIT UP BLOOD, CONSUMPTION.

K. C. McLean, Esq., of Kentucky, Prince of Wales, writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very low with a cough, and at times spit up much blood. I was not able to do the least work, but most of the time was in bed. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely dependent. The first bottle I took did not seem to do me much good, but I had faith in it and took another. I had taken fifteen bottles, and now I do not look nor feel like the same man I was one year ago. People are astonished, and say, 'well, let your time I would not have thought that you would be living now.' I can thankfully say I am entirely cured of a disease which, but for your wonderful 'Discovery,' would have resulted in my death."

WHY NOT YOU?

Mr. K. C. McLean.

officers, and 56, establishing the county of Mingo. Senate bills, 21, 26 and 38 were ordered to third reading.

Senate bill 37, relating to the removal of county seats, was made the special order for 3:30 Thursday.

Senate bills 11, 14 and 31 were advanced to a second reading. No. 27, relating to action in trespass, and No. 32, relating to license tax, were rejected.

The senate then went into election of United States senator. Mr. Whitaker nominated Hon. S. B. Elkins, and Mr. Scott nominated Hon. J. N. Camden. Each received the full party vote. Mr. Gramm was absent and Mr. Finley was paired with him. Lockney voted for Wirt R. Neal, Populist. At the afternoon session senate bills 39, rendering $300 tax on cigarette dealers; 41, establishing a home for incurables; 43, relating to erroneous assessments, were passed to second reading.

House bills 5, relating to time for working roads; 1, amending divorce laws; 6, amending charter of Huntington, were referred to their appropriate committees.

House joint resolution 11, refusing to confer with the Virginia state debt commission on the basis proposed, was referred to the finance committee on motion of Senator Farr.

Mr. Whitaker offered a resolution that state superintendents of schools furnish copies of all contracts with book companies with the state for school books. Adopted.

New bills introduced: 82, by Hughes, relating to appeals, writs of error and supersedeas; 83, by Lockney, providing for the investment of the permanent school fund.

The senate then adjourned.

HAYWARD INDIGNANT.

A Publication Connecting Him With an Attempted Jail Delivery Offends His Counsel.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Jan. 22.—Harry Hayward was indignant when he was brought into the court room to-day. His attorneys were also indignant and Mr. Erwin lost no time in letting the court know the state of the defense's feelings. It was all due to a story printed this morning with reference to a recently attempted jail delivery. The sheriff had discovered a carefully planned conspiracy among the prisoners in the county jail for a midnight delivery. It had proceeded so far that a fine set of tools had been procured and six rivets taken out of the bars in a protected portion of the cage.

The plan was to get through the cage, overpower the single night watchman and escape, but the suspicions of the sheriff were aroused and he caused a search of the cells to be made. The discovery of the tools frustrated the plan. The paper which published an account of the affair endeavored to connect Harry Hayward with the plot to escape, and ascribed to him the leadership in the affair. Attorney Erwin, addressing the court, declared that an explanation was due his client. He then detailed how one of the prisoners on the lower tier had passed up to Hayward, whose cell is on the upper tier, a bottle of acid with which he was told he could make his escape by using it to corrode the bars.

Hayward at once told Erwin of the occurrence and was advised to have nothing whatever to do with the plot. He acquiesced, and it was determined to notify the authorities of the plan. Hayward did not care to gain the ill will of the other prisoners by playing the informer, and the officers agreed when informed of the plot through Hayward that his connection with the affair should not be divulged. Mr. Erwin was very indignant, therefore, at the publication. Judge Smith said that the whole affair was outside of the trial, but that in view of the peculiar circumstances it was proper enough for the defense to make an explanation. Turning to the press table, he made a special plea to the newspaper representatives to be fair and impartial in all that they wrote concerning the trial.

The third juror was secured to-day in the person of C. S. Philbrick, a lumberman.

ARMS SMUGGLED

Into the Hawaiian Republic By Canadian Smugglers—Tale of an Eye-Witness.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALA., Jan. 22.—A gentleman whose business has brought him into contact with the custom officials has just returned from Victoria and he tells a rather startling story regarding the shipment of forty cases of arms on the notorious smuggling schooner South Bend to the Hawaiian Islands. He says: "During my residence in Victoria and the surrounding towns last October I saw a great deal of the band of smugglers who have their headquarters along the sound. It was there I met Billy Stewart, who is known in Honolulu as 'Opium Brown,' and Jack Forbes, alias Jack Regan. These men are well known opium and Chinese smugglers."

"About the second of October I was walking under the Esquimaux bridge, near the terminus of the Esquimaux & Nainaimo railroad. In the recesses of an arch I noticed a pile of cases, carefully covered with canvas. Each case was about four feet in length and a foot square, and I have since learned contained rifles and carbines. I made the find about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At that time the South Bend was at anchor in a small inlet just outside the main harbor. Late in the afternoon five hundred pounds of opium, packed in cloth and baskets, were transferred from the store of Fookon, Son & Co., the most prominent dealers in opium in the northwest."

"The baskets were all placed under the bridge near the arms, and that night the drug and cases of rifles were transferred to the South Bend in a small row boat. She left the inlet about midnight, and for the first time in its history the owners, Stewart & Forbes, went aboard the schooner and took charge of the trip all the way to the island, where they landed on the west coast of the island of Leni."

"The goods were taken ashore and stored on a Chinese plantation directly opposite where the schooner anchored. Stewart and Forbes are still in Honolulu."

"Both men are notorious smugglers and swindlers, and are wanted by the authorities of Seattle and other northwestern towns. For a number of years they have been openly engaged in opium and Chinese smuggling and have succeeded in accumulating considerable money."

An Exodus of Negroes.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Jan. 22.—One hundred thousand negroes will be removed from the states of Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana to Northern Mexico within the next six months. This is the statement made by W. H. Ellis, the manager of the Mexican colonization company, who has just returned from Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Ellis states that this missionary work among the negroes is meeting with the greatest success, and the first one hundred families will pass through here this week, enroute for the promised land. The Mexican citizens living in the section to be colonized by the negroes have protested to the Mexican government against the scheme.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

An Engine Starts While the Engineer is Under It, and He May Lose His Life.

WESTON, W. VA., Jan. 22.—About 11 o'clock this morning Engineer A. Chidister was under his engine repairing some minor defect, when on its own accord it started off. In his effort to get from under the engine he was caught and dragged about thirty feet. His cries attracted the attention of a nearby yardman, who succeeded in stopping the engine just as it was approaching a frog, thus saving him from being crushed to death. Mr. Chidister will lose one foot and it is feared his life, as the doctors think he is hurt internally. This, however, cannot be determined until reaction sets in. He is a prominent member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and other lodges in this city.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—A patent was granted to-day to David W. House, of Davis, for rocker for tannery vats.

An Ex-Banker in Jail.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 22.—Ex-Banker L. E. Burlingame, who was brought here from Oklahoma to answer to three indictments for grand larceny, was put in jail, being unable to give bonds. There are now seven indictments against him for receiving deposits in the Bank of Commerce while knowing it to be insolvent.

Split the Century in Three Parts.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

And about one and a third of these represent the term of popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most highly sanctioned and widely known remedy in existence for dyspepsia, lack of stamina, liver complaint, constipation, nervousness, incipient rheumatism and inactivity of the kidneys. Neither spurious imitation or underhand competition has affected the sale of this genuine remedy.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Chas. R. Goetze, Will W. Irwin, John Klari, Wm. E. Williams, C. Menkemeller, Wm. H. Hague, H. C. Stewart, A. E. Scheele, J. Coleman, C. Schnepp, Wm. Menkemeller, Wheeling, W. Va.; Bowie & Co., Bridgeport; B. F. Peabody & Son, Benwood.

"A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed."

A friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm and after using it six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. It is a most valuable remedy.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

My son was afflicted with catarrh, I induced him to try Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrhal smell all left him. He appears as well as any one.—J. C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

MANY stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable, and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure.

Of every man and woman living to-day at the age of 25, one out of two will live, according to the tables, to be 65 years of age.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embodied in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
